

Fil Campbell & Tom McFarland

“... a unique voice. She really gets to the heart of a song” Living Tradition

“Tom’s superbly judged and sensitively understated percussion and vocal harmonies...a perfect foil to Fil’s glorious singing”

David Kidman, Living Tradition

“They say nothing’s perfect, but your gig at Bacca Pipes on Friday came pretty close.”

Tony Charnock, Topic Folk Club, Bradford

“Rhythm and voice, the perfect combination” Zitty Mag, Berlin

“A great mix of traditional and contemporary songs with the expert percussion skills of Tom perfectly complimenting Fil’s exquisite vocals.” Falkirk Folk Club

Fil Campbell and Tom McFarland from Co. Down, have been performing as a duo since the early 90s. The combination of vocals, guitar and percussion, a mix of original and traditional songs with lots of choruses and the Irish gift of chat and craic, has brought them around the world many times.

Back There, their latest CD, has been receiving some fantastic reviews. The collection of contemporary and original songs, which for the first time also features Tom on lead vocals on a few songs, was recorded in their own studio in Rostrevor.

“Captivating songs” Living Tradition

“Back There is nothing short of outstanding” Sounds of the Emerald Isle Radio, USA

Originally from Belleek in Co. Fermanagh, Fil has been gigging regularly since she was a teenager and together with Tom who hails from Belfast, they have performed all over Europe, Ireland, the USA, Australia and UK, at festivals and folk clubs, on radio and TV.

With 7 studio CDs to date, and several project recordings over the past few years, their repertoire is varied and eclectic. Fil is well known locally for her work presenting both TV and radio shows as well as her interest in community choirs and working with adult singers.

Tom has played drums and percussion for singers as diverse as John Wright, David Knopfler (ex Dire Straits), Finbar Furey and Ben Sands and is in demand as a bodhran tutor and session percussionist and has appeared on many recordings.
